~~I cannot ~~over~~ emphasize enough~~ the importance ~~to our~~

The importance of this concept of exchange of personnel to the effective conduct of OTR's training responsibilities cannot be emphasized enough; it is OTR's life blood. On the one hand, it is the assurance of continuity and currency ~~of ~~quality~~~; on the other, it is the essential ingredient to the ~~career~~ development of a career corps of experienced instructors and ~~training officials.~~ managers and planners of Agency training activities. Although this concept has appeared to be accepted and to be working successfully, I am deeply alarmed at the growing evidence that it will not continue to the extent that it must if we are to have an improved training program.

As I ~~remarked~~ stated in my opening remarks, there is little in this Survey that is new to me and to OTR. But so long as the Director of Training serves ~~roles~~ only as Director of the Office of Training and not also as the Agency's staff officer for training, there is little he can do toward implementing ~~some~~ the measures which ~~do~~ seem vital to the significant improvement and further development of our Agency Training Program.
